

Richard H. Murray

Richard H. Murray is managing director and chief claims strategist of Swiss Re, in New York and Zürich.

Murray is currently on the supervisory board of the Centre for the Study of Financial Innovation; on the advisory board of Oxford Analytica; on the advisory board of the Northeast Business Law Center; a member of the Capital Markets Commission and a member of the Institute for Law Reform and Global Forum Shopping Task Force, both organized by the U.S. Chambers of Commerce; and, a member of the Republican Presidential Roundtable. He has been the chairman of the Professional Responsibility Committee of the large global accountancy firms, 1999-2002; a member of Lloyd's (London), 1989-1994; the British Insurance Association (London), 1989-1994; the Risk and Insurance Management Society (U.S.), 1985-1989; a Task Force Member of the Group of Thirty (Washington, DC), 1994 & 1996; and director, executive committee, and lecturer at the Institute of Management Development (Lausanne, Switzerland).

Murray received his education at Harvard University, 1958 and Harvard Law School, 1961, respectively.

Previously Murray served as the global director of legal and regulatory affairs for Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu and as general counsel of Deloitte Consulting from 1994-2002; chairman and chief executive officer of Minet Professional Services in London from 1989-1994; executive director of Touche Ross International in New York from 1986-1989; general counsel of Touche Ross from 1973-1986; and, partner and head of the litigation department of Oppenheimer Law Firm in St. Paul/Minneapolis from 1961-1973.

Murray writes and speaks frequently on matters involving legal liability, professional responsibility, corporate governance, and the information requirements of the capital markets.