

Tonya Mallory, BS, MS
Co-founder, President and CEO
Health Diagnostic Laboratory, Inc.

Tonya Mallory is an award winning American entrepreneur whose pioneering work in the field of chronic disease management has helped propel the field of cardiology and related diseases into the forefront of diagnostic care. Tonya laid the groundwork for Health Diagnostic Laboratory, Inc. in 2008 and currently serves as President and CEO. HDL, Inc. is best described as a health management company with clinical laboratory services for both patient/physician and employer sectors in the areas of cardiovascular disease, heart failure, stroke, diabetes, metabolic syndrome, and fatty liver disease. In a period of approximately 4 years, the company has grown from 11 employees in January 2010 to more than 800 employees today.

Tonya Mallory holds an undergraduate degree in biology and a graduate degree with honors in forensic science from Virginia Commonwealth University. Tonya's work in diagnostic laboratory science spans over twenty years, having led tremendous growth at Berkeley Heartlab and Wako Diagnostics, and serving as a healthcare regulatory consultant for domestic and international companies. Tonya has collaborated with a prominent cohort of physicians to develop a comprehensive panel of laboratory tests to facilitate earlier detection and reversal of chronic disease.

Tonya Mallory was appointed to the Virginia Small Business Finance Authority Board by Governor McDonald and sits on the Boards of the American Heart Association, the Board of Trustees for the VCU School of Business, CJW Hospital System Board of Trustees, VA Chamber of Commerce, and the MCV Foundation. Since the opening of HDL, Inc. in November of 2009, Tonya has won many career awards, some of which include: Governor's Award for Science Innovation; Top 25 Businesses of the Past 25 Years by Venture Forum; Influential Women Award by Virginia Lawyers, and Ernst & Young 2012 National Entrepreneur of the Year. HDL, Inc. has been ranked as one of the best places to work in Virginia by Virginia Business.

Tonya's commitment to the patients, physicians, and populations HDL, Inc. serves is underlined by a strong belief in her community and her family. The core values of HDL, Inc. thrive in a healthcare climate shifting from diagnosis of illness to sustainment of wellness. Tonya Mallory is leading HDL, Inc. to meet the high standards of health and wellness expected by the global population of the 21st century.
