DAVID SIMPSON

Representative Simpson has consistently been ranked as one of the ten most conservative State Representatives for all 3 sessions he has served the people of East Texas. David is President and Chief Executive Officer of Avinger Timber LLC, which owns and manages timberlands in several Counties in northeast Texas. He also manages other small businesses, including Simpson Publishing Company, which he founded. David and his family have lived in Longview since 2000.

7:30 PM - TX REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT 7

JAY DEAN

At seven years old, Jay Dean learned strong conservative values and never stopped living them. As a church altar boy with two paper routes and a lawn mowing business, Jay learned to love God, work hard, and save what you earn. Those values led him to start a successful business in East Texas. Jay learned firsthand how high taxes and regulation slow growth and kill jobs. As Mayor of Longview, Jay took every step to slash bloated budgets, keep taxes low, and create good jobs. The results: Forbes named Longview one of the 'best places for business' in America.

DAVID WATTS

David Watts represents the next generation of Conservative Republican leadership. David is an accomplished business professional with more than 23 years of experience as a business and technology consultant solving business problems including efficiency and customer service. David is an accomplished project manager with a proven track record of real world results with large, complex, global projects. Additionally, David has worked for seven years as a full time preacher and authored the internationally recognized Korean War historical fiction novel, Hope in Hungnam.
