

American Business Drives American Prosperity

- ▶ There are hundreds of millions of American workers who help businesses deliver goods and services.

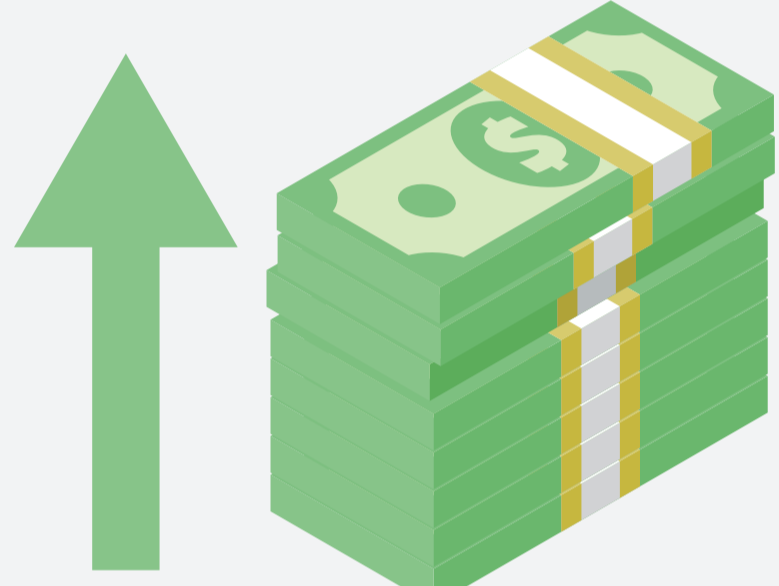

Private Sector Employment

That's 128,854,000 jobs!

- ▶ Americans earn competitive wages and salaries – and those wages and salaries continue to grow.

6.52%

From August 2017 to August 2019, average private weekly earnings grew from $907.82 to $966.98.

- ▶ The vast majority of private businesses offer benefits and incentives so that workers can stay healthy and plan for the future.

79% of private industry workers were offered paid vacation and paid holidays

73% of private industry workers were offered paid sick leave

69% of private industry workers had medical care benefits available

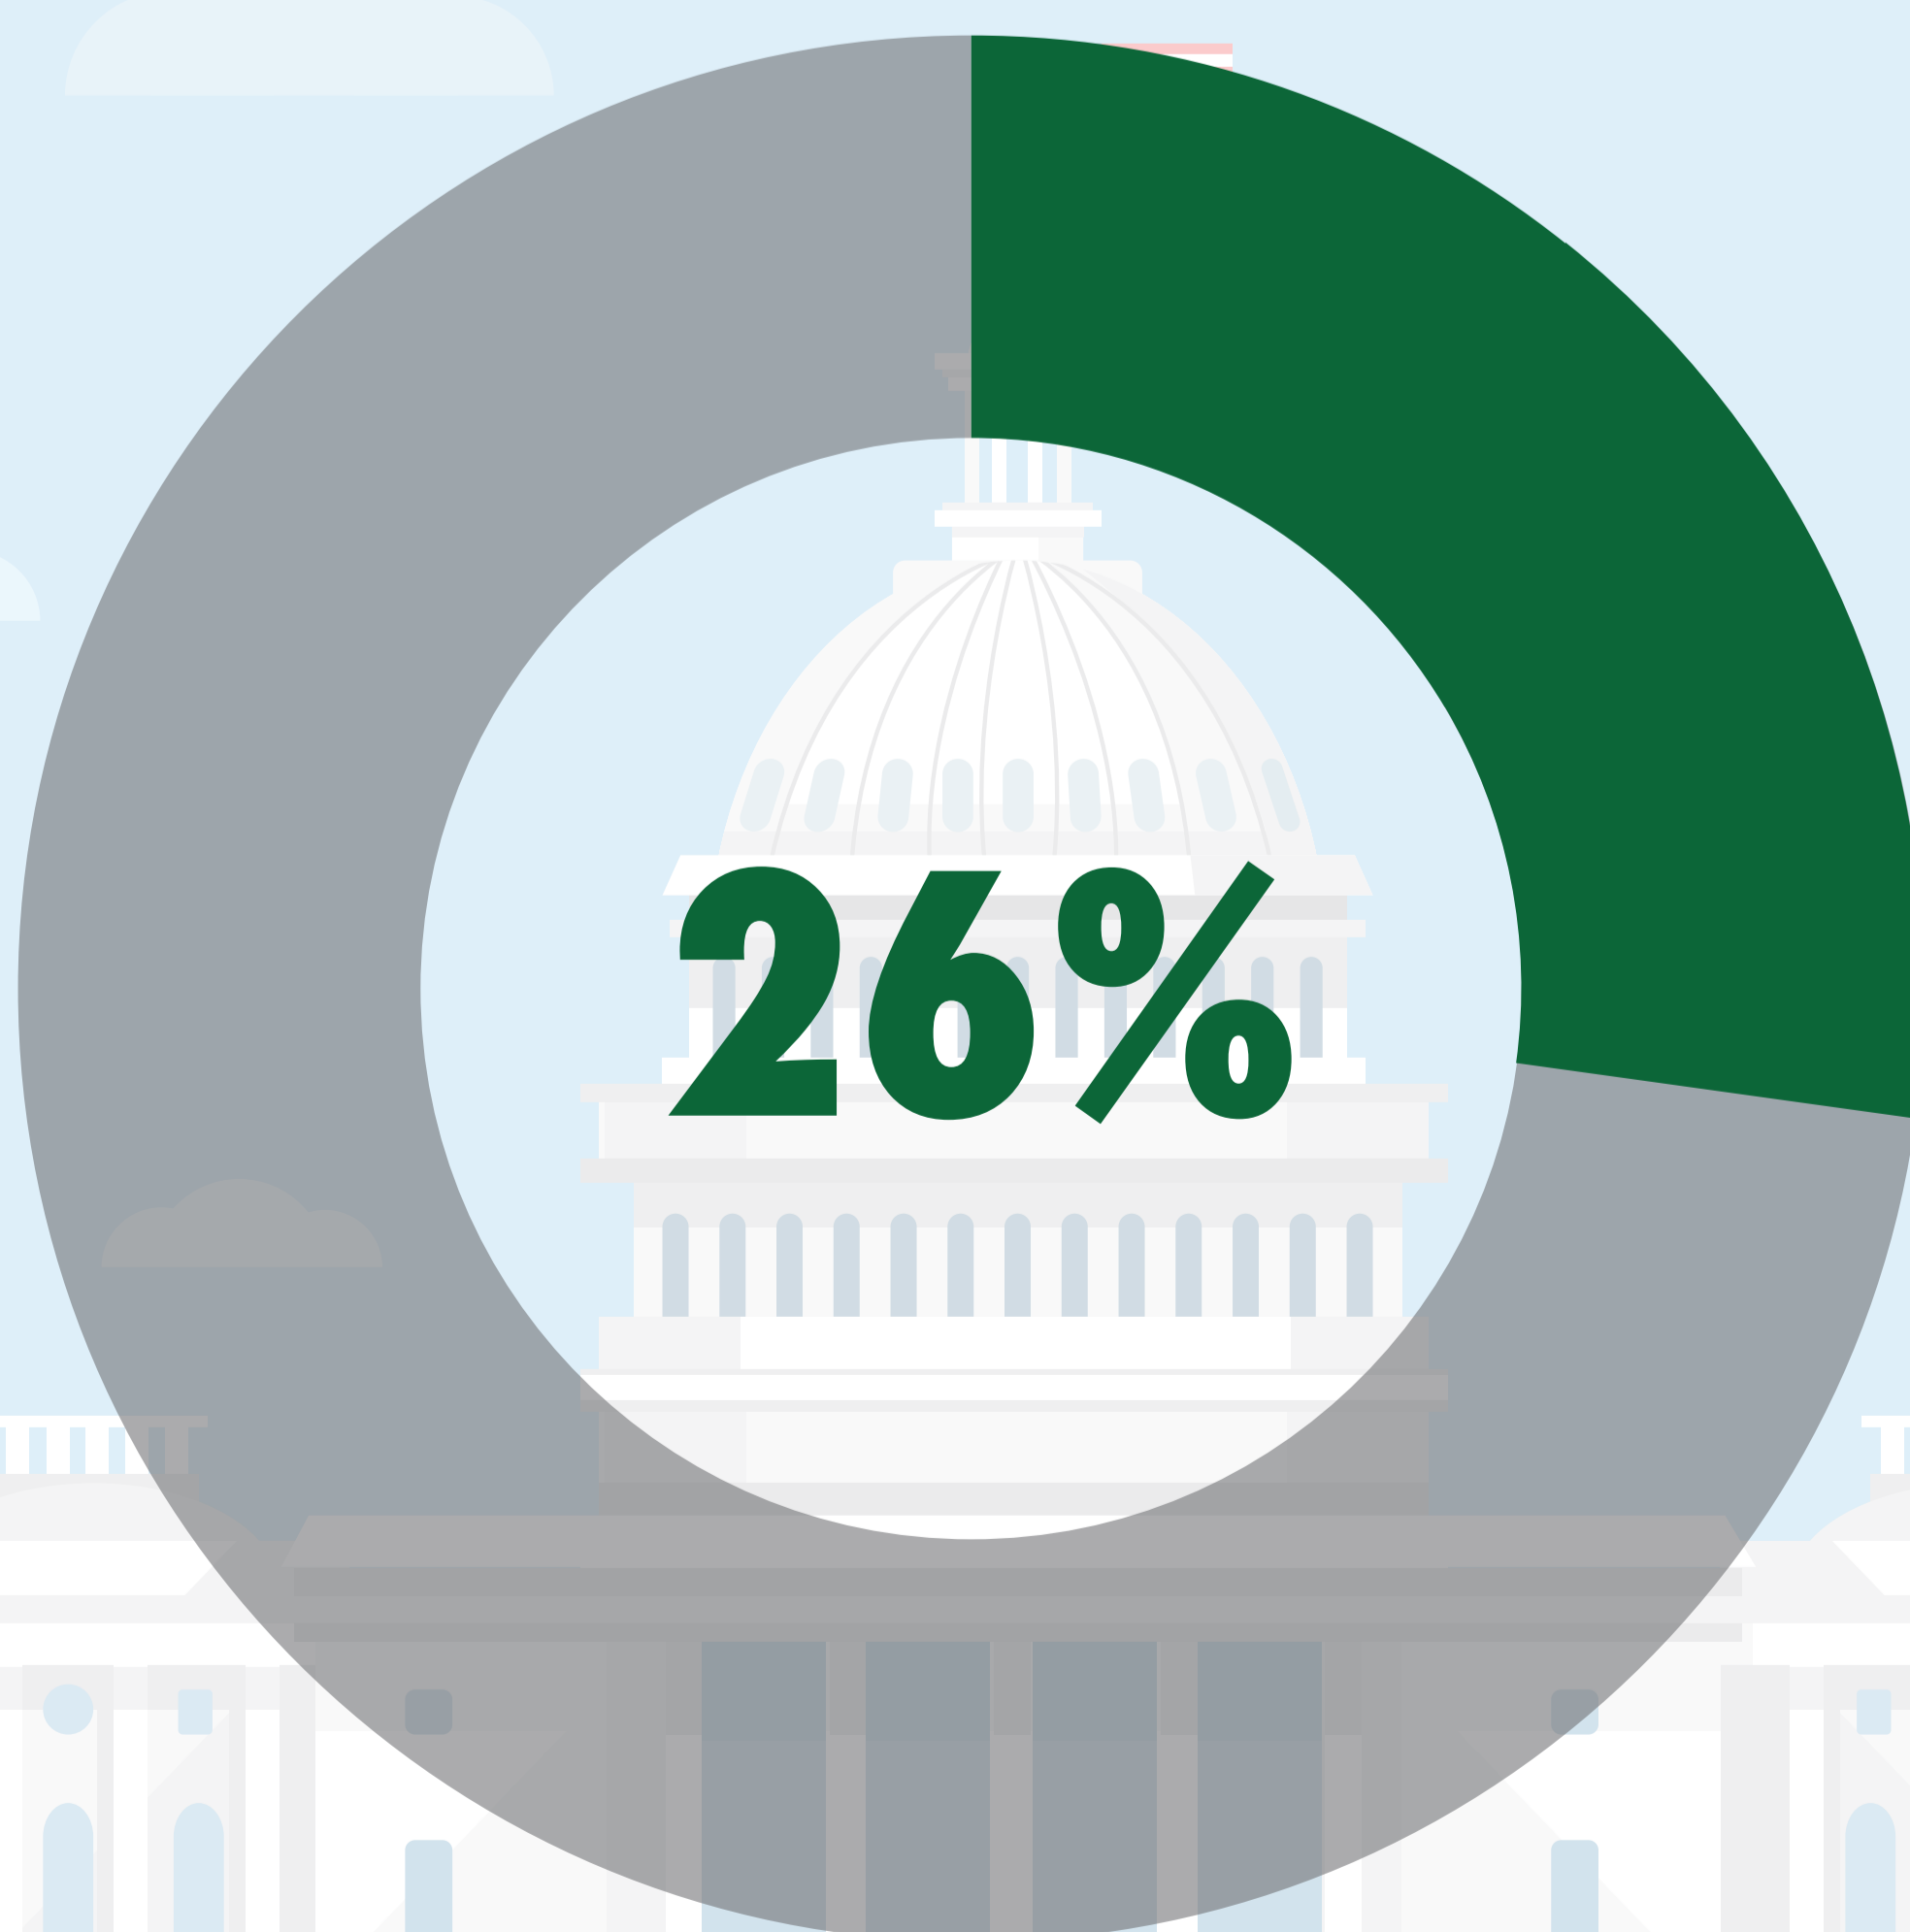

67% of private industry workers had retirement benefits available

56% of private industry workers had life insurance benefits available

- ▶ Over a quarter of all federal revenue comes from the taxes paid by private businesses. Those contributions fund our military, schools, roads, and much more.

Federal Revenue From Private Businesses

That's $790 billion!

Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics

