

John Kirchner

Executive Director, Midwest Region, Congressional and Public Affairs
Division, U.S. Chamber of Commerce

John Kirchner, executive director of the Midwest Region in the Congressional and Public Affairs Division at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, represents the Chamber throughout the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin. Kirchner helps develop and implement the Chamber's grassroots, legislative, and political activities in the area. In addition, he works closely with state and local chambers, as well as with members of Congress in his region to further the legislative priorities of the Chamber.

Previously, Kirchner spent eight years as public relations manager at Marvin Windows and Doors, leading the company's public affairs and corporate communications efforts. Before that, he was the political director for the Minnesota Republican Party.

Kirchner received his B.A. in political science from St. John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota, and now resides in Edina, Minnesota.

U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

1615 H Street, NW
Washington, DC 20062

202-659-6000

www.uschamber.com

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce is the world's largest business federation representing the interests of more than 3 million businesses of all sizes, sectors, and regions, as well as state and local chambers and industry associations.