1 Table Q172: Do you approve or disapprove of the job Donald Trump is doing as President? 4

2 Table Q1: Do you approve or disapprove of the health law known as the Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare? 7

3 Table Q2: As you may know, the health law known as the Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, remains the law of the land. Which comes closer to your view? 10

4 Table Q3: Who is most responsible for making health care more affordable in the United States? 14

5 Table Q4: One potential problem in the future with health care is with the continued funding of the Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, while other health care reforms are explored. How responsible are President Trump and those in Congress for continuing to fund the Affordable Care Act while pursuing other health care reforms? 17

6 Table Q5: Some say that Congress should pass bipartisan legislation to help make health insurance markets more certain and stable for consumers, to ensure they have coverage choices and so premiums can be kept in check. How much do you support or oppose Congress passing legislation to make insurance markets more certain and stable. 20

7 Table Q6_1: As you may know, under the 2010 Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, financial help is available to low-income people to help them pay for out of pocket health care costs like copays and deductibles. The federal government reimburses insurance companies for these costs, sometimes called cost-sharing reductions. How important do you think this financial help is for each of the following? Helping lower income Americans access medical care 23

8 Table Q6_2: As you may know, under the 2010 Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, financial help is available to low-income people to help them pay for out of pocket health care costs like copays and deductibles. The federal government reimburses insurance companies for these costs, sometimes called cost-sharing reductions. How important do you think this financial help is for each of the following? Allowing insurance companies to offer a variety of plans to Americans with different health care needs 26

9 Table Q7: Insurance companies have warned that if action is not taken by Congress to fund cost-sharing reductions in September, many Americans health insurance premiums will increase, potentially by as much as 20% in the individual market, due to the uncertainty created in the health insurance marketplace. Knowing this, how urgent do you think it is for Congress to fund cost-sharing reductions? 29

10 Table Q8: Thinking ahead to the 2018 elections, if your member of Congress did not take steps to address problems with the Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, would you be more or less likely to vote for them in the 2018 elections, or would it make no difference either way? 32

11 Table Q9: Thinking ahead to the 2018 elections, if your member of Congress did not take steps to address problems with the Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, and the law, as President Trump says implodes, would you be more or less likely to vote for them in the 2018 elections, or would it make no difference either way? 35

12 Table Q10: Thinking ahead to the 2018 elections, if Congress passes legislation that improves health care, and your member of Congress voted against it, would you be more or less likely to vote for them in the 2018 elections, or would it make no difference either way? 38

Table Q6_2: As you may know, under the 2010 Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, financial help is available to low-income people to help them pay for out of pocket health care costs like copays and deductibles. The federal government reimburses insurance companies for these costs, sometimes called cost-sharing reductions. How important do you think this financial help is for each of the following?

Allowing insurance companies to offer a variety of plans to Americans with different health care needs
