Deadline for Application: Saturday, May 31, 2025

Position Description: The Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce is seeking a dynamic and visionary President & CEO to lead one of Southern California's most iconic coastal business communities. This individual will drive strategic growth, champion local businesses, and position the Chamber as an essential force for economic vitality and civic leadership.

The President & CEO will serve as the chief spokesperson and advocate for the Chamber's diverse membership, representing their interests with local, regional, and state stakeholders. This role requires a collaborative and entrepreneurial leader who can build strong partnerships across sectors while enhancing the visibility and impact of the Chamber in the community.

Reporting to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, the President & CEO will oversee a dedicated team and network of volunteers focused on member engagement, business advocacy, workforce development, and destination promotion—ensuring Huntington Beach remains a premier place to live, work, and thrive.

With a proud legacy and forward-looking agenda, the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce plays a key role in shaping the region's prosperity and quality of life. The organization hosts signature events, supports small business success, and provides a platform for civic dialogue in one of California's most vibrant cities.
