1.3 Chamber Identity

In year 2000, Rick Hill of Hill Design Group approached the Chamber President with an idea to develop a new logo for the organization. After a meeting with staff to determine all aspects of the Chamber's programs, events, and philosophy, Rick Hill returned with a design that was embraced by the Board of Directors. The logo represents the @ sign in everyone's website address, signifying that the Chamber of Commerce is in the middle of everything that goes on in Central Delaware and the main source for all business matters.

Having a logo designed in this fashion identifies the Chamber with its market and our goal is to use it on all printed materials in the future.

2.2 Variations

Preserving the true identity of the chamber logo is treated with the upmost respect and taken into consideration with all new marketing materials the CDCC releases.

Chamber committees seeking to develop their own identifying logos cannot incorporate the word mark or the official Chamber logo without the approval of the Chamber President. Compliance with guidelines is an important part of establishing the Chamber brand.

2.3 Guidelines

The purpose of these guidelines is to specify the policies and procedures concerning the use of the Chamber name and the official symbol that identifies it. These are designed to ensure that the Chamber is promoted in a formalized, professional and uniform manner, and to protect the marks from infringement.

The Chamber reserves the right to remove, rescind or withdraw any document or publication, including electronic publication, which does not comply with these Visual Identity Guidelines.

DO:

Only use provided electronic artwork.

Ensure a clear space when placing the chamber logo

Contact our chamber for the correct logo

DON'T:

Do not alter the chamber logo, modify colors, add animation or introduce other graphic elements

Do not remove any original parts of the chamber logo or use separately. (only if approved by CDCC).

The Central Delaware Chamber of Commerce logo and identity is encouraged to be used and utilized by its membership and partnerships. The CDCC logo is available for such by contacting the President by email at jdiogo@cdcc.net. All community partners are recommended to contact the CDCC directly.

2.5 Written Communication

All Chamber publications, videos, web pages, letter-head, envelopes and business cards must comply with the Visual Identity Guidelines with respect to the use of the word mark (Central Delaware Chamber of Commerce) and official logo unless the Chamber's President grants an exemption.

All written communication materials are consistent with the brand and include the logo, the U.S Chamber Accreditation logo, and the CDCC vision.
