TASTE OF TUCSON: FOURTH AVENUE FOODIE STROLL

SATURDAY, JAN. 2

Discover local flavors. Explore Tucson. Make new connections.

Arrive early and experience a taste of Tucson! Join fellow attendees for a casual, self-guided foodie adventure along Tucson's historic Fourth Avenue. Explore local restaurants, discover unique flavors, and enjoy the character of one of Tucson's most vibrant districts.

Whether you're a foodie or simply looking to connect with fellow Winter attendees, this is a great opportunity to experience Tucson beyond campus.

What to Expect:

- Explore at your own pace with fellow attendees.
- Fourth Ave. is easily accessible by walking or taking Tucson's streetcar
- Discover local restaurants and unique Tucson flavors
- Enjoy opportunities to connect with Institute attendees outside the classroom.

AND IF IT WORKS IN YOUR FOODIE TOUR PLANS...

there will be a casual meet up at
Boca by Chef Maria Mazon (533 N 4th Ave.) from 6-7 p.m.

There is no fee to attend.
Attendees are responsible for their own food and beverage purchases.
