

Chris Eyer

Executive Director, Northwest Region, Congressional and Public Affairs
Division, U.S. Chamber of Commerce

Chris Eyer is executive director of the Northwest Region in the Congressional and Public Affairs Division at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He represents the Chamber throughout the states of Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington, and Wyoming and helps develop and implement the Chamber's grassroots, legislative, and political activities in the area. He works closely with state and local chambers and members of Congress in his region to further the legislative priorities of the Chamber.

Earlier in his career, Eyer served as a staff counsel on the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions, where he advised Ranking Member Mike Enzi (R-WY) on postsecondary education and national service issues. In addition, he served as a legislative assistant handling health care, education, Social Security, and telecommunication issues for former Sens. Frank Murkowski (R-AK) and Conrad Burns (R-MT), as well as for Rep. Kevin Brady (R-TX), Eyer received his B.A. in history and political science from Miami University (Ohio) and a law degree from the University of Oregon.

U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

1615 H Street, NW
Washington, DC 20062

202-659-6000

www.uschamber.com

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce is the world's largest business federation representing the interests of more than 3 million businesses of all sizes, sectors, and regions, as well as state and local chambers and industry associations.