

U.S. Chamber of Commerce
National Security and Emergency Preparedness Department

“The State of Homeland Security Since 9/11: Looking Back, Looking Forward”

Wednesday, August 17, 2011
9:00 AM–12:00 PM

AGENDA

- 9:00–9:05 Welcome and Introductions
Ann M. Beauchesne, Vice President, National Security and Emergency Preparedness Department, U.S. Chamber of Commerce
- 9:05–9:30 Opening Remarks
The Honorable Tom Ridge, CEO, Ridge Global; Chairman, National Security Task Force, U.S. Chamber of Commerce
- 9:30–10:00 Keynote Address; “Public Engagement in Homeland Security: “If You See Something, Say Something”
The Honorable Janet Napolitano, Secretary, U.S. Department of Homeland Security
- 10:00–10:45 Panel Discussion — 9/11: Looking Back, Looking Forward
Moderator: Ann M. Beauchesne, Vice President, National Security and Emergency Preparedness Department, U.S. Chamber of Commerce
- The Honorable Ralph Basham, former Commissioner, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, DHS
- Jim Caverly, Director, Partnership and Outreach Division, DHS
- Al Martinez Fonts, former Assistant Secretary, Private Sector Office, DHS;
Executive Vice President, Forum for Policy, U.S. Chamber of Commerce
- Greg Garcia, former Assistant Secretary, Cyber Security and Communications, DHS;
Partnership Executive, Cybersecurity and Identity Management, Bank of America Corporation
- Major General Timothy J. Lowenberg, Adjutant General and Homeland Security Advisor to the Governor, State of Washington
- Randy Mullet, Vice President, Government Relations, Con-Way

Lora L. Ries, Director, Immigration Reform Strategy, CSC

Dan Stoneking, Director, Private Sector Office, FEMA

10:45–11:00 Networking Break

11:00–11:50 Panel Discussion — 9/11: Looking Back, Looking Forward (Continued)

11:50–12:00 Closing Remarks, Governor Ridge

The Honorable Tom Ridge, CEO, Ridge Global; Chairman, National Security Task Force, U.S. Chamber of Commerce

12:00 Adjourn

We would like to extend a sincere ThankYou to our sponsors,
CSC and Con-way